

THE MISSISSIPPI YET ON THE RISE

Situation Still Continues To Be Very Dangerous at Memphis and Arkansas.

AT CRITICAL POINT

It Is Expected That the Crisis Will Come Sometime During Next Few Hours.

(Special By Scripps-McLae.)
Memphis, March 18.—The river is now at the highest level it has reached during the flood. The hope that the break in the Holly Bush levee would relieve the situation here has not been realized and the condition is considered desperate.
Blow Up Levee
The desperate condition may be known when it appears that the St. Francis levee board have decided to blow up the levee near Marion, Ark., so that vessels may get across it and save people living in the vicinity.
Many Helpless
The situation in the city itself is very bad. Many persons are homeless and steps have been taken to relieve them. Helena, Ark., is four to ten feet under water. The crisis is expected within a few hours.

REDMOND SEES HOPE FOR IRELAND

In a Speech at a Banquet Recently, He Says Prospects Are Good at Present.

(Special By Scripps-McLae.)
London, March 18.—John Redmond presided over the St. Patrick's day banquet given last night at the Hotel Cecil at which 700 persons sat down. The United Irish league of America sent a cablegram of greeting.
John Redmond, proposing the toast of "Ireland, a Nation," said that the aspiration of Irishmen was not an ignoble dream of gain or vengeance. Ireland was making a rapid advance towards the realization of the ideal of Thomas Davis. The political movement was never fuller of hope and triumph than at the present moment, and in that success thus achieved was directly due to the unity, courage, self-sacrifice, and organization of their people.
They could not forget this in the presence of those foreign members of parliament who since last St. Patrick's day banquet had suffered in English prisons. They might also congratulate themselves on the beginnings of a great educational and industrial revival in Ireland, which would enable it to compete with the foreigner, and last, and not least, there was a revival of the cause of temperance.
That was a record continued Mr. Redmond, to gladden the hearts of Irishmen whenever they might be assembled on St. Patrick's day. Never had the scattered children of Ireland more solid reason for absolute faith in the delivery of their race.

DEAN M'GINNITY HAS RETURNED

He Is Much Benefited in Health, and Enjoyed His Trip to the Pacific Coast.

Dean E. M. McGinnity's residence has all day been the scene of an informal levee in honor of his return last evening from his health-seeking trip to California and Honolulu. As soon as the news of his return was circulated his parishioners and devoted friends sought to be among the first to call upon, and welcome him home. His brother, John J. McGinnity of Colorado, returned with him.
Their Trip
On their western trip the two brothers visited Colorado Beach, Los Angeles, Santa Barbara, and San Francisco, spending over a month and a half in southern California. During the time from February 10th to March 2nd the gentlemen made a trip to Honolulu, spending about a week in the city.
This visit to Honolulu was one of the pleasant features of the entire trip. Although the rain was incessant while they were there, the fall on one day aggregating 2½ inches, the climate was, nevertheless, not disagreeable. The temperature ranges between 62 and 72 degrees throughout the entire year. In its people Honolulu possesses a growing number of Americans, although the major part of the population outside of the native element, are Chinese, Japanese, and Portuguese.
Is Much Better
In health Dean McGinnity has been greatly benefited by the journey. That he may obtain the greatest advantage from the improvement already made he will not take up active work for some time to come, but rest at his home in this city the remainder of the winter.

MAD WOMAN MURDERS DAUGHTER AND MOTHER

Sets Fire to Two Houses and Then Ignites a Pail with Straw Over Her Head.

Penn Yan, N. Y., March 18.—Having at the highest pitch of frenzy, Mrs. James Strowbridge of Guyanoga, a small village near here, killed her aged mother and her daughter, set fire to two houses in which they lived; then cut her throat, filled a pail with hay and straw, and setting this on her head, put a match to it and rushed in to one of the blazing houses. The bodies of the three women, charred and blackened, were found after the fire had burned itself out.
Early in the afternoon Mrs. Strowbridge's home was found to be on fire and soon after the alarm was sounded Mrs. Strowbridge was seen to set fire to another house across the street in which her daughter, who is aged 27 years, lived and also to two barns in which there were eighteen head of cattle and three horses. When a party of men attempted to break open the barn and release the animals Mrs. Strowbridge, who was standing in front of her blazing home brandishing a revolver, fired at them repeatedly.
The three women lived a hermit life, working on the farm like men and often wearing men's clothing. They are supposed to have been well-to-do. Mrs. Strowbridge is believed to have gone suddenly mad.

WATTERSON'S PEN IS STILL BITTER

He Calls Grover "The Everlasting Cleveland", in a Recent Article.

(Special By Scripps-McLae.)
Louisville, Ky., March 18.—In the Courier-Journal Henry Watterson again discusses "The Everlasting Cleveland."
"To the great body of democrats of the west and south," he says, "Mr. Cleveland is an eyesore, an offense, a red flag, but to those democrats who, like ourselves, would bridge the chasm of 1896-1900, he is merely an obstruction. He stands right across the middle of the bridge, blocking the way. Except for him there would be no serious trouble. If we were his friend, and assuredly we are not his enemy, and believed in his lofty professions, we should say to him:
"Mr. Cleveland, the democratic shipwreck came to pass while you were on the bridge; many of the crew and some of the passengers hold you responsible and guilty of incompetency. If not of treachery. Even according to your own rating of yourself you have done enough for our party and your country. You are an old man. Why complicate the situation, embarrassing your friends and cheating your age of its repose by once more undertaking to seize the helm and to steer the ship?"

TOBACCO TALK BY GROWERS

CROPS THROUGHOUT THE COUNTRY ARE GOOD.

MANY PLANS ARE DISCUSSED

The Co-Operative System Finds Favor in Some States, and May Be Tried.

Nothing startling has occurred in the local tobacco market during the past week. With several of the packers the assorting season is nearing a close and inside of two weeks there will be plenty of help for all who are now short of hands.

The farmers are making deliveries every day and the buyers are receiving the crops as fast as they can make room for them in the warehouses. They are very careful about getting more in hand than they can handle on account of the leaf being full of moisture; it heats rapidly in the bulk and unless assorted at once a few hot days would cause considerable damage.

A report has been circulated through the Eastern markets that "black rot" has appeared in the present crop, which the local dealers declare is without foundation. They admit that there is a great deal of moisture in the crop, but that there is no reason why "black rot" should appear if the crop is properly handled, at present they are not borrowing in trouble on this account and think the story may have been started by dealers who have large holdings of 1901 in hand and wish to dispose of them before the new crop gets into the market.

A steady hunt is being kept up for both old and new goods still in the hands of the growers, as the weather and roads will permit. On account of the approach of spring the holders of bundle leaf seem willing to grant some concessions in price rather than assort the crop themselves. The buyers are taking advantage of this and are rapidly cleaning up the crop. Considerable business in old goods is being done, in a quiet way, and while no large sales are reported the numerous small ones amount to quite a sum.

General New York Market
While trading holds its own, the question of the domestic wrapper supply looms up now and more as a problem. Very little force-sweated leaf is in preparation and the chances are that still less will be forthcoming. But the cigar industry needs wrappers. Of course, there is a sufficient supply of Sumatra in stock, but the old Fabian policy of hesitancy seems to have taken hold of the manufacturer, even to the evident injury of his business. While he needs only to stretch out his hand to get at the most serviceable wrapper leaf, he hesitates because he thinks he may get a better bargain from the new Sumatra crop. Thus the near approach of the first inscription is retarding a trade which ought to be very brisk just now, and it is yet very doubtful whether the new Sumatra will be a better bargain, for certain it is that the prices at the first few inscriptions are, as a rule, always higher than at the subsequent ones. And if the higher prices should prevail then they are liable to effect an advance of the goods in stock. In the end, therefore, the manufacturer can hardly be the gainer by his Fabian policy. Whatever business was done both in Sumatra and domestic leaf during the week was mostly in small quantities, though the aggregate would sum up a respectable amount. The Havana market is holding its own.

Connecticut Valley
Everybody in the tobacco business here is talking of the proposed combination of growers to assort, pack and sell their own tobacco. Two meetings have already been held and another is to take place next Monday, at which it is expected that the plans formulated will be adopted and a start made toward the end in view. As most of the available leaf has been absorbed, the farmers have plenty of time to consider the question. They all are in favor of having the scheme tried, but, with characteristic caution, many growers prefer to have the experimenting done by some one else. The plans stipulate that no organization will be effected unless at least 5,000 acres are pledged and stock subscribed in the ratio of one share for each acre. What makes many hesitate to join the movement, is the fact that when a man raises an exceptionally fine crop of leaf he never has any difficulty in disposing of it above the average market price, and expert growers do not see how they can do better under the co-operative scheme. But there is a large number of growers who believe they should receive more for their crops and will gladly welcome any scheme looking toward that result. In the line of business sales are few and far between. There is still plenty of tobacco in the hands of farmers, but they will do their own assorting and may possibly have it packed.

New York
The tobacco market here has livened considerably within the last week and there is now as much activity as at any time this season. Buyers are here in increasing numbers, and their presence is indicated by the larger number of sales recorded, about 75 cases having changed hands at prices ranging from three to seven cents in the bundle, the majority of the purchases being around the five and six cent mark. There have also been sales of assorted leaf at from seven to nine cents. Warehouses are open for the receipt of leaf, which is coming in freely, so that on the whole, the market, though a little late, is in a generally satisfactory condition.

Lancaster, Pa.
Now that the tobacco crop has been pretty nearly all sold, and the greater part is in the warehouses, there is almost as much diversity of opinion concerning its merits as

A Layman's Lenten Sermon.

Nineteenth Day of Lent: St. Mark V. 39v.—And when he was come in, he said unto them, Why make you this ado and weep? The damsel is not dead but sleepeth.

Jesus said these words when he performed the miracle of raising the daughter of Jairus from the dead. Can we not read between the lines of this verse and see a promise of resurrection from the dead and a life in the world to come? Christ raised the dead from their last sleep and cured the sick, all that we might have a sign to show that in the world to come we are to receive cures for our earthly ailments and that we too will be raised from the dead to a life everlasting.

Jairus had faith that Christ would aid him in his great loss and suffering and he came to him and received what he asked for. If Jairus had the faith of his convictions in that early day can we not hope for something to come from earnest and devout prayers in this enlightened day and age?

Jairus was a ruler of the synagogue, a great man of his city. He had the respect of his fellow citizens and we find Jesus driving out the most of relatives who mourned by the side of the dead girl. On the way he had been touched by a woman who had had a sickness since early childhood and she was healed. A poor creature who dared not stand before him. Yet Christ healed her because she had faith and then went to the home of the rich man and brought his daughter to life. To the rich and poor his treatment was the same. He came on earth to do good for mankind and he accomplished His mission.

Let us devote some time of each day of this lenten period to the reading and thought of Christ's teachings. We can learn much that applies to our every day life, no matter in what line of business we are in.

"The Tempest."

At a time when the vapid musical comedy, the tainted problem play and the over wrought melo-drama seem to be the most aggressive in their popularity and at a time when America's oldest and best actors, especially those of the classic drama, only pause for awhile to give to the latest generation of playgoers a touch of their fine quality before making their adieu. It is a pleasure to welcome with their support two such eminent players as Louis James and Frederick Warde who present tonight "The Tempest" one of Shakespeare's best and most fantastic comedies. To Wagenhals and Kemper is due the credit for the production. To these two energetic, progressive and intelligent managers is due the honor of trying to perpetuate the best examples of dramatic literature. The production of "The Tempest" is bewildering in its details and one such as fitly set upon the stage, as fairly acted in its lesser parts, as nobly acted in its greater ones should be of itself enough to turn the tide of general condemnation which like to the Propontis flows forever on and against the entire drama. Anticipations aroused by the first announcement that the two eminent stars would be seen in this least presented of Shakespearean plays, will be more than realized tonight. Artistically the production is a revelation. To illustrate the play requires the personality of two players of marvelous strength and diversity of characterization and Wagenhals and Kemper have found the two in Louis James and Frederick Warde. The supporting company is admirably selected and the combined result is a most perfect and harmonious picture, continually animated by changing scene. It is scarcely necessary to speak of "The Tempest." So many scholars have contributed their views of the play to current literature and on every well regulated book shelf may be found full and complete notes analyzing each scene and act and character. Time and space will not permit exhaustive comment on this fantastic creation of Shakespeare's fancy. "The Tempest" is generally regarded as one of the great playwright's most perfect work. Some of his plays are just a bit obscure. "The Tempest" is by no means without faults, but it is by common consent believed to be the most ingenious and the most unique in its conception that ever received life from the wit of man. The characters of Ariel, Miranda and Caliban are types of profound imagination. They are ideal impersonations of nature. No stretch of inventing fancy can conceive any types so perfectly fantastic and yet clothed with all the truth and life of nature, and the whole texture of incident and circumstance is framed in keeping with the ideal exploited in the drawing of these three characters. The details of "The Tempest" are complete. The incidents cling closely together, supplanting each other and holding up the burden of the story. It is a play inspired to excite wonder and admiration and in the production of it being given by Wagenhals and Kemper this purpose is faithfully carried out. The grace and efficiency in which the workmanship is steeped are so ethereal and so fine that they can hardly be discoursed in any but a poetic form, and it is a matter of sincere doubt whether criticism has any fingers delicate enough to grasp them, for criticism is necessarily obliged to substitute the forms of logic for those of art.

there was last November. Six months after a tobacco crop has been housed one would think ample time for the fullest information possible being brought to light, and yet there is no little diversity of opinion upon this subject among the packers. Most, perhaps three-fourths, of the latter express the opinion that the crop is a thoroughly sound one and will gladden the hearts of the manufacturers in due time. The remaining fourth, also buyers and holders of the goods, talk differently and they profess to give reasons for their belief. When the doctors disagree, what shall the laymen believe?

Cincinnati
Almost all the local cigar leaf dealers on Tuesday became members of the Western Leaf Tobacco Merchants Association. E. Hecht of Chicago and George Engelhart and George Schuster of Milwaukee were here on that day to get them all in line. The association is a mutual organization, for the purpose of protecting the members from bad accounts, bad payers and fraudulent customers. When a member of the association desires to know about a certain firm he writes to the headquarters of the association, now located in Milwaukee. This inquiry is sent to all the members of the organization, who tell all they know about the firm in question. In this manner a record of the business standing of the firm in question is ascertained. At present the leaf dealers of Milwaukee, Chicago, St. Louis and Cincinnati form the membership and all pronounce the scheme very successful and advantageous.

He Went to the Fire
There was a fire alarm sounded about an hour ago, and a reporter for this paper arrived at the scene of the conflagration before the fire department, which responded promptly. After the hose was attached to the water plug it was found that the hose was too brief to carry the aquapara to the flames, in seeming defiance of the fire department. Several of the fire department, who were more excited than the others discussed the propriety of carrying the fire closer to the source of the water supply, but this plan was abandoned on account of the extreme heat of the flames. In the meantime the fire flared raged worse than ever, and kept on raging until the entire stable was reduced to ashes. The live stock was saved with the exception of one cow, which was badly scorched but will survive. The harness and other items too numerous to mention perished in the flames. The reporter did not learn who owned the stable nor the street it was located on, but if the readers of this paper will call up the department they can find out. There were several other interesting facts the reporter did not learn, but they cannot be mentioned for lack of space.—Exchange.

Hyomel the Only Cure for Catarrh, Which Returns Your Money if Not Satisfactory.

It is seldom that a druggist has enough faith in the medicines he sells, even when prepared by himself, to be willing to refund the money if it does not cure; but Hyomel has cured so many cases of catarrh among the consumers of the People's Drug Co., that they offer to refund the money to all who use it and report that they are not satisfied. Hyomel is the simplest and most convenient remedy for catarrh ever offered to the public. Breathed through an inhaler so small that it can be carried in the vest pocket, for a few minutes four times a day, it will absolutely kill all the germs of catarrh and cure the disease.

Catarrh cannot exist where Hyomel is used. It has a two-fold action, killing all the germs in the air-passages and lungs and soothing and healing the irritated membrane.

Some of the prominent men and women of the country have gladly given testimonials to Hyomel. After seeking relief in vain for years this wonderful remedy has cured them of catarrh, and it is no wonder that they want others to know of it. Rev. Dr. Stryker, of the 34th St. Church, of New York City, writes, "Hyomel gives wonderful relief in catarrh when other remedies have failed. It has been of great service to me."

If you have catarrh, accept The Peoples Drug Co's. proposition and use Hyomel.

LESS POLITICS, MORE BUSINESS

The following non-partisan ticket was presented at the citizens' meeting held at the opera house, Saturday evening, March 14. While it was not endorsed by formal action, it was accepted by most hearty approval. It will be presented to both the republican and democratic primaries and there is every reason why it should be accepted by both parties and become in fact as well as name.

THE PEOPLE'S TICKET

Mayor—A. O. Wilson.
 Clerk—A. E. Badger.
 Sealer of Weights and Measures—Martin Dunn.
 School Commissioners, at Large—S. C. Burnham, First Ward, James Shearer, Third Ward, H. J. Cunningham, Fifth Ward, Paul Rudolph.
 Justice of the Peace—C. W. Reed.

Ward Tickets

 Second Ward—Henry Rogers, alderman; H. L. Skavlem, supervisor.
 Third Ward—A. E. Matheson, alderman; J. L. Bear, supervisor.
 Fourth Ward—C. W. Schwartz, alderman; F. P. Grove, supervisor.

THE MANUFACTURERS

The manufacturers meeting held in Milwaukee just before the legislature convened was called for the purpose of protesting against proposed radical railroad legislation. A similar meeting was held at the Myers house last Saturday evening and Janesville Manufacturers discussed the same question with Senator Whitehead and Assemblyman Valentine.

These men represent the class of interests most directly involved in railroad legislation, because they are heavy patrons. Their judgment and advice should have more weight than all the sentiment and fine spun theories that may be advanced.

The question is as destitute of sentiment as any abstract proposition. The simple assertion that the railway companies are defrauding the state out of a million dollars a year, does not make it so, and however popular the statement may be, and that class of statements are always popular, because of prejudice, it practically amounts to a libel in face of the facts already developed.

An unjust stab at the railroad interests, is a direct attack upon industrial interests. The manufacturers of the state represent a conservative level-headed constituency. They possess both brain and money, and the ability to use both, in advancing public and private interests.

Their judgment on any question of business policy is regarded as sound and there is no reason why it should not be regarded when the policy of the state is considered, regarding its attitude toward business.

The legislature will do well to go slow on radical changes. It is possible to so injure the state by ill advised and hasty action that it will not recover in a decade.

THE LOCAL PAPER.

"There is hardly any way in which a person can do so much for his own locality with so little cost and at the same time with so much benefit to himself and his family, as by giving a hearty support to his local paper, says the Bay City (Mich.) News. A newspaper with evidence of substantial support in its pages speaks volumes for a town. The fact that ever trade seeker has an advertisement in it impresses strangers."

There is so much truth in the above statement that it is worthy of more than passing notice. The press of any town of importance is an index of the town. The respective resident or investor is influenced largely by first information gained through the columns of the local press.

If the paper is up-to-date and the business of the city well represented in its pages, it speaks of a prosperous community. The best way and the only effective way to advertise a town is through the columns of the local press.

Aside from the direct benefit that comes to every intelligent advertiser by way of increased business, is the indirect benefit that helps the town, and every man in it.

Publicity is the secret of success in all legitimate lines of business. A man may have the best stock of goods in town, and his prices may be reasonable, but unless he informs the public of the fact his goods will mildew, and his profits will never be realized.

What is true of the individual is true to a large extent of the town itself, and this fact many business men fail to appreciate.

It is worth something to a community to herald to the outside world that the town is noted for good morals and for superior educational advantages, and so week after week, through the year, column after column is devoted to the churches by the secular press. Public services are advertised and various announcements made for information and enlightenment, not for pay, for this is not demanded. The schools of the city are treated very much in the same way, and manufacturing industries also share very largely in the same liberal treatment.

The papers are expected to furnish this class of free advertising, and they do it without complaint, but it all costs money, and means something for the benefit of the city. Senator Davis of Illinois recently made an address on this subject and will long remain green in the memories of publishers because of the appreciation expressed.

He said: "Every year every local paper gives from 500 to 5,000 free lines for the benefit of the community in which it is located. No other agency can or will do this. The editor in proportion to his means does more for his town than any other man, and in all fairness, man with man, he ought to be supported—not because you happen to like him, or admire his writing, but because a local paper is the best investment a community can make. It may not be crowded with great thought, but financially it is of more benefit than both preacher and teacher. Today editors do more for less pay than any men on earth. Patronize your home paper, not as a charity but as an investment."

This is not a plea for charity or support. No self respecting publisher ever assumes the attitude of a mendicant. The paper gives value received for every dollar invested in it, both to reader and advertiser.

It is the one effective medium for distributing information. Every line of business in any enterprising city should be represented in the columns of the local press for two reasons. First for the good results that always come from judicious publicity, and second for the benefit of the town.

The business men of Janesville as a class are enterprising with the exception of two or three lines who for some unexplained reason avoid publicity as they would contagion. This is the only city of any importance in the country, where these prominent lines of business are not represented in the columns of the local press, and the absence of this kind of publicity is a question of comment wherever a Janesville paper is read outside the city.

The prosperity of any town depends very largely upon united effort. The papers of every city depend upon advertising patronage for existence. When these factors are more fully appreciated, the prosperity of the city will be enhanced.

WALL STREET

Henry Clews, the New York banker, publishes the following summary, in a recent letter.

Monetary conditions have at last had their effect on the stock market, and the situation is now working out its own cure by natural and effective means. Liquidation has been severe, and in some cases intensified by personal differences; but the declines were chiefly due to exhaustion of money supplies through the locking up of large sums in financial operations, which would receive scant consideration if presented now in their original form. Although the situation has been greatly improved by the heroic treatment of the last few months, and the credit situation is much stronger than a year ago, it would be premature to assume that the turn has come. It is practically certain there will be no relief for the money market until the funds required for April settlements find their way back again to the banks, and this is a matter of several weeks. The West is rapidly gaining in its power over the money market, and this year its regular requirements are unusually heavy owing to the large volume of business. A great land speculation is in progress in the West and very large numbers of settlers have taken up new properties on which large payments must be made on April 1st according to custom. It is quite possible therefore, that the return movement of currency may not be only backward but smaller than usual; thus preventing low rates of interest here for some little time ahead.

The nation is presenting to the world a spectacle that is ridiculous in the extreme. Rich in resources, crowned with prosperity, possessing ability, energy and ambition in marked degree, yet served by a congress which refused to supply a circulating medium sufficient to meet legitimate demands. If that is statesmanship, "God save the mark."

The question that confronts Janesville taxpayers this spring is a question of both men and principles. The principles involved are vital to the public and private welfare, and the men presented possess ability and determination to put these principles in practice. It is time for the citizens to unite for the common good.

If the chief executive controlled the senate, as completely as he appears to control the assembly, a ten day session would have been sufficient with two years to repent.

It is currently reported that the governor is already planning his third campaign. There's nothing like talking time by the forelock.

A dictionary is usually considered dry reading, but a late issue thus defines "To pop the question. See pop."

Janesville people will have an opportunity to see the president either in Madison or Milwaukee.

The man who objects to business reform would object to a fortune served on a silver platter.

PRESS COMMENT

La Crosse Press: The two spellings of Senator Hutton's name are running a close race for favor since he introduced the resolution for a race conference.

Racine Journal: Wisconsin needs to make a proper and suitable exhibit at the St. Louis exposition. Certainly $25,000 is entirely too little. Make it anyway $100,000.

Chippewa Herald: It will be hard to pass a barber bill so long as the majority of the legislators continue to wear long beards. Billy goat bills stand a much better show.

Marion Advertiser: Approaching municipal elections are now taking up all the attention of politicians, and not much notice is taken concerning the actions of the legislature. Suffice it to say, Bob and his force keep an eye on Whitehead.

La Crosse Press: The Milwaukee Sentinel's southern correspondent, G. E. Vandercook, who was taken away from Madison and sent south where he could be harmless, is furnishing the patrons of his paper a great deal of well known information.

Neenah Times: And after all, come to think it over, Oshkosh and Neenah people who saw the play of "The Wife," will not worry much over being able to see the play of "The Gay Deceiver." The Lord tempers the wind to the shorn lamb.

Fond du Lac Reporter: Since an indignant Oshkosh woman broke up an amateur performance because her name was not printed in large enough type on the program, promoters of such entertainments will probably have their programs printed on hand bills when they have a performance at Oshkosh.

Cambria News: Mrs. Carrie Nation does not represent Kansas, and Senator Tillman does not represent the south. They are both in the lecturing business and therefore must have advertising. That is the reason they are noisy and noisome. Let them alone and they'll go home and take their tales behind them.

Kaukauna Sun: The boys down at Madison have been keeping so quiet during the past week their constituents hardly know where they are at. It is presumed that their "lucky curve" pens will soon be filled and an additional supply of stationery purchased—these are two things that appear to oil the legislative machinery.

Milwaukee News: Having devoted the last two years to an attempt to prove that the votes of Wisconsin are not capable of intelligently nominating candidates by direct vote, the Sentinel is now busy trying to show what a measly shame it is that the white men of the south have ousted and barred ignorance and incapacity from control of public affairs.

Among the visitors at the temperance convention yesterday were Prof. A. W. Burr, Prof. R. C. Chaplin, Rev. Charles Kelsey, Mr. and Mrs. William Van Aken, from Beloit; Rev. W. H. Stout, Dr. Elsie Smith, from Evansville; Rev. H. A. Miner from Madison; Rev. William H. Moore of Clinton; Dr. Henry Colman of Milwaukee; Rev. G. H. Trevor of Whitewater.

River is Up: The river is still up and has risen about seven inches since Sunday night. This morning it receded slightly, but it is still near the average high water mark of spring freshets.

George Baccash was in, Milwaukee today on business.

IRISHMEN'S DAY WELL-OBSERVED

MEETING AT THE OPERA HOUSE
LAST NIGHT ENTHUSIASTIC.

J. L. O'CONNOR'S FINE TALK

Green Ribbons and Bits of the "Rale" Shamrock Seen, Everywhere.

To judge from the amount of green doing decorative service yesterday a stranger would have said that Janesville was made up of Irishmen. Green neckties, green emblems, tiny clay duddens with green trimmings, and a multitude of other fanciful devices were in evidence.

In the evening green was even more prominent than during the day. At the St. Patrick's day dance in Assembly hall there was hardly one of the three hundred and fifty persons present who did not sport at least a fluttering bit of ribbon of the prevailing hue.

At the opera house in the evening was held the most distinctively Irish celebration of the day. Members of the Ancient Order of Hibernians, and their friends, assembled to hear retold the tale of the history of their race, their wrongs suffered at the hands of the English, the martyrdom of their saints and patriots, and the "Spirit of '98."

Splendid Assemblage
Enthusiasm such as is rarely seen was shown at the gathering. The very mention of the name of one of the heroes of the sons and daughters of "old Ireland" was applauded to the echo. Mute witness of the honor and love with which these people whose hearts are still "across the sea" regarded their foster land was given in the decorations of the stage. One side was draped the green flag of the A. O. H., and the other the red, white and blue.

Dr. M. A. Cunningham presided over the meeting, which was opened by a double number from the quartette, composed of Mrs. Pyper, Miss Joyce, Mr. Garbutt, and Mr. Bennett. Both songs were warmly received. Mrs. James Connors then followed with "Ireland, I Love Thee" and "St. Patrick's Day," sung in a very pleasing manner.

Impromptu Address
Then Dr. Cunningham did a manifestly unfair thing. At least that is what Rev. Mullen said. Rev. Dowling of Argyle was the next to have appeared but he was absent. Then without any warning Dr. Cunningham called on Father Mullen, who was seated on the stage, to address the assemblage.

Father Mullen was only persuaded to arise after a thunder of applause, and then he called upon his hearers to give him some hint as to what to say. "Do you want me to praise Ireland?" he said. The way his remark was greeted answered him in the affirmative, and he launched for its impromptu character.

Joseph Burns then presented a poem entitled "Irish Leaders," which touched a popular chord. Mr. Burns' descriptive powers are very great and his rendering of the selection was more than pleasing to the audience, who showed their appreciation by repeated applause. Mr. Burns is a forceful speaker and from last evening's exhibition he should have add at patrick

Spirit of '98
Ex-Archbishop General J. L. O'Connor of Milwaukee closed the evening with an address that aroused every drop of Irish blood in the house. His theme was the "Spirit of '98" and it evidently touched the right spot in the heart of every man and woman present.

Mr. O'Connor's address told in stirring language of the heroic Irishmen who stood for home and freedom during the troublous times of persecution. He lauded the chief of the patriots among them, and vividly described the sufferings which some of them underwent. Mention of the names of Robert Emmet, Charles Stuart Parnell, and other brave Irishmen, brought forth a storm of applause. The address was masterly throughout, and was the one thing needed to complete one of the most successful St. Patrick's day celebrations ever held in this city.

Credit for the preparations is due to the committee in charge of the arrangements, James Sennett, John Dunphy, Thomas Hefferman, William Hughes and J. J. Connolly.

MANY SWISS PASS THROUGH CITY

Two Score of Them Change Cars en Route for Brodhead and Monroe.

Two score of Swiss, thirteen days from their native cantons, presented an interesting spectacle at the Milwaukee depot about ten-thirty this morning. They had just arrived from Chicago and changed cars to go to Brodhead and Monroe. They carried all manner of odd valises, wicker hamper and satchels. The men smoked pipes of queer shapes and sizes. There were only four women in the party.

Among them there was but one who could speak English. He was John Luenberger of Brodhead. He has been in this country for the past twelve years, and went back a few months ago to bring over this party. He said that his companions were mainly cheese makers and farmers. One of them was a skilled blacksmith and there were a few other tradesmen. Some of them will gain employment in cheese factories but the majority of them will go to work on farms near Brodhead and Monroe.

Mr. Luenberger explained in broken English, that the party had left Switzerland March 5, and taken ship on the 7th. Landing at New York they had come direct through. The four girls in the party were unmarried he said.

In the car which was given up to the immigrants, the men drank frequently and copiously from long green bottles of cherry whisky, home made. Many of them had with pieces of jewelry and carving of exquisite Swiss workmanship. Luenberger had a beautiful watch chain of silver, in filigree design with enamel inlays of delicate pink and blue.

INDOOR MEET IS NOW SCHEDULED

HIGH SCHOOL ATHLETES ARE TO HOLD ONE.

TRAINING HAS COMMENCED

A Goodly List of Events Will Be Competed in by the Youthful Athletes.

Crack and indoor field athletes of the high school will meet Saturday evening in their annual indoor class meet. The men most interested held a meeting yesterday and fixed upon that date. After meeting they adjourned to the gymnasium, where the meet will be held, and devoted a couple of hours to practice in the gymnasium, where the meet will be held, and accomplished two hours of practice in the events which are to be contested Saturday.

Schedule of Events
At least ten events will comprise the program for that evening. They are the 20-yard dash, 40-yard run, half mile, mile, high and low hurdles, pick-a-back race, pole vault, high and broad jumps. It is possible that a relay race, between the four classes may be run, but Coach Norris is unable to predict whether there will be enough runners in each of the classes to make this possible.

Warm Meet Probable
In actuality the meet is a try out to determine the quality of the material for the spring athletic events. With the exception of the men who went to the triangular meet at Beloit practically none of the other athletes have done any training this season. As they bring all but about a dozen on an equal footing the meet will serve well enough to give a line on the prospects of the contestants. Interest among the classes will be as high as though the men had been training for months, and some exciting events are assured.

Possible Spring Program
Track and field work will probably be one of the prominent features of this spring's athletic calendar. Several meets will probably be held. As yet they are all somewhat visionary, but among the prospective meets are an outdoor local meet, the outdoor meet of the Beloit College Academy, Rockford, and Janesville triangular combination which has already met indoor, a meet with Whitewater, Evansville and other high schools, and then the interscholastic at Madison.

BIEDERWOLF IS COMING SOON

The Noted Evangelist Will Begin Services Here Next Sunday.

Mr. Biederwolf, who will conduct the services here beginning March 22, is a native of Indiana, both his parents were of German parentage at Monticello. He is a graduate of Princeton university and Princeton Theological seminary, having finished the latter course in 1895. Mr. Biederwolf graduated with honor, receiving the New Testament Greek Fellowship, thus enabling him to spend two years in the schools of Germany. After spending one year in the Holy Land he became pastor of the Broadway Presbyterian church at Los Angeles. At the second call for volunteers in the Spanish-American war he offered his services as chaplain, and was by Governor Mount appointed to that position in the 161st I. V. I. Mr. Biederwolf is the author of the regimental history, and of several smaller religious books. His preaching is both trenchant and persuasive. He has a keen intellect and a lovely Christian spirit and is sure to win his way into the hearts and lives of those with whom he comes in contact.

Dr. J. Wilbur Chapman, who since the death of Mr. Moody, is the most effective evangelist in this country, says of him: "It was my privilege to be associated for a few days with Mr. Biederwolf in Chicago. The meetings were conducted on the north side of the city in the Church of the Covenant, a union of four or five churches in the vicinity of this church. The pastors were united and hearty in their expressions of appreciation of the work, one of them remarking that Mr. Biederwolf's impression upon Chicago was profound. The McCormick Theological seminary being in the neighborhood of the meetings, the professors and students attended the meetings and co-operated in every way in increasing the efficiency of the same. Mr. Biederwolf is one of the best evangelists in this country, and Mr. Maxwell one of the best singers."

TESTS VALUE OF WISCONSIN PEAT

UNIVERSITY HAS A SPECIAL DEPARTMENT FOR IT.

ONLY ONE IN THIS COUNTRY

Samples Are Taken from All Over and Thoroughly Tested at the State Institution.

Wisconsin is the only university in the United States to have a peat laboratory. Under the direction of Prof. A. W. Richter the main laboratory of the engineering building has been divided into three parts. The center room is used for the determination of the moisture, volatile matter, fixed carbon, ash and other impurities in the different samples of peat. In this room the heating value of peat as a fuel and microscopic investigations as to the character of peat are being carried on.

In the east room experiments are being made in the manufacture of gas out of various kinds of peat. This gas will be used in order to determine the value of peat for heat, light and power purposes. In the room at the west end is determined the exact amount of heat in the various samples of peat by the use of Junker's calorimeter, a piece of apparatus which has recently been purchased for this work exclusively.

"There are millions upon millions of tons of peat within the bounds of Wisconsin," said Prof. Richter. "We are experimenting with samples of it obtained from various parts of the state in order to determine its value for heat, light and power purposes, and also to find out how it can be utilized."

This department was started last fall and the work in it is being done by R. H. Haddfield, O. J. and A. L. Johnson, O. J. mechanical engineers taking their theses in this branch of work. These two men are collecting samples of peat from all over the state and testing them.

A general appropriation of $5,000 has been asked from the legislature by the state geological survey and probably the peat department will get some of that appropriation to place it upon a firm basis.

Many factories for the placing of peat upon the market in suitable form have been erected in the state, but they have not been successful, because it was impossible to compete with coal. In 1869 a large factory at Fond du Lac manufactured it. About the same time a factory was started at Ripon, but they all failed because peat could not be put upon the market as cheap as coal.

The object of this laboratory is first to find out of what value peat is as a commercial product for heat and power purposes and second, to discover some suitable way of getting upon the market as cheap or cheaper than coal. If these experiments are successful it will mean that millions of tons of peat which are now almost useless will be placed upon the market for commercial purposes.

DEATH FOLLOWS FLOODS WAKE

Desperate Act Will Cause Great Monetary Loss, but is Likely to Be Resorted to in Order to Rescue Human Beings From Death.

Memphis, Tenn., March 15.—Flooding corpses of the victims of the flood, and piteous appeals from persons who are surrounded by water that threatens them momentarily with death, may lead the authorities to cut crevasses in the levees, which the people of this section have bent every effort to strengthening and preserving for weeks.

If the levees are cut millions of dollars of damage will be done and many persons will be made homeless, but if it is found that this is the only way that several hundred persons now facing death by drowning can be saved it will be done.

Cut Off by Water.
It was thought that the break in the levee at Trice's Landing would help matters by relieving the pressure of the water, and causing a fall at this point. Instead of this, the break has complicated conditions by flooding a vast area in Arkansas across the Mississippi from Memphis. From this territory a call for help has gone up from persons who have been surrounded in their homes and on high portions of the country, and thus far it has been an impossibility to send them assistance.

Find Many Bodies.
Floating bodies have been found at various points by the rescuing boats, and search is being made for others. The St. Louis & San Francisco railroad has annulled all trains, its tracks being under water near Marion, Ark. The town is totally flooded. Negroes and white persons from the adjacent territory are pouring into Marion every hour, asking that boats be sent to rescue their families.

There is no means of reaching them except by making a break in the levee near Memphis, and this may be done if conditions show no improvement.

Negroes in a Panic.
Negroes at Marion have given way to fright, and almost a panic exists. A relief train carried 5,000 sacks, to be used in damming back the water, but labor cannot be secured to unload the train.

Washouts were reported on the Iron Mountain, Choctawhatchee, and the Frisco system, a few miles west of Bridge Junction, Ark., and that all traffic from Memphis to the West will be suspended thereby. Two washouts are reported on the Frisco, the first about four miles west of Bridge Junction, and the second at Marion, Ark. Two washouts are reported on each of the other lines about the same distance from Memphis as those on the Frisco.

Heart Beats Per Minute. Weak Heart
Complicated With Kidney Trouble.
Dr. Miles' Heart Cure Cured Me Permanently.

"Your medicine is worth its weight in gold, and I cannot recommend it too highly for the good it has done me. I was troubled with heart disease complicated with a weak back and kidney complaint for a number of years. Although five of our best doctors waited on me I grew worse instead of better, until at last nothing seemed to do me any good. I had a rapid pulse varying from 100 to 150 beats per minute, a choking and burning sensation in the wind-pipe, and pain in the heart. At the time I began taking Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure I weighed but 130 pounds. After using the remedies six months I weighed 159 pounds and felt well, and strong and hearty. My nerve, heart and kidney troubles are all gone now and as this cure was performed nearly seven years ago I know that it is permanent."—Edward Knapp, Wilkerson, Ohio.

"For many years I have been a great sufferer from heart disease. I was subject to faint and sinking spells, with a clutching, oppressive or full feeling at the heart, that is difficult to describe. I was unable to attend to my household duties, and was thoroughly wretched and miserable. I doctored with some of our best physicians but got no relief until I tried Dr. Miles' Heart Cure and Nerve. I experienced benefit from the first few doses and finally was completely cured."—Mrs. J. M. Holloway, Geneva, Ind.

GNAWS TILL THE BLOOD FLOWS
Prisoner on Trial for Attempted Murder Feigns Insanity.
St. Joseph, Mich., March 18.—Merrill W. Mason, who has been feigning insanity and who made two attempts to effect a jail delivery, was placed on trial in the circuit court for attempting to murder and rob Edward Stewart of Niles, Mich. While evidence was being taken Mason gnawed his finger nails until the blood flowed freely, hoping in this way to influence the jury toward the insanity defense. Later he confessed that he was not insane at any time, pleaded guilty to the charge and was sentenced to twenty years in the state prison at Jackson.

Claims Inventor's Honors.
Augustus C. Carey of Boston claims to have operated a system of wireless telegraphy on the Marconi plan as early as 1886.

SENATE RATIFIES PANAMA TREATY

CUBAN AGREEMENT IS SAFE

Upper House Will Give Its Sanction to the Measure and It Will Be Submitted to the Representatives at the Regular Session.

Washington, March 18.—With only five votes against it the Panama canal treaty was ratified by the senate. Seventy-eight senators were present when the vote was taken, and all, with the exception of Daniel and Martin of Virginia, Morgan and Pettus of Alabama and Teller of Colorado, went on record in favor of the Panama canal. Of the twelve absentees several Republicans could not secure pairs because of the numerical weakness of the opposition.

Senator Cullom, chairman of the foreign relations committee, to whose untiring energy and excellent leadership most of the success is due, closed the debate, occupying nearly an hour. He followed Mr. Morgan, the leader of the opposition, who also had an hour.

No Amendments.
The treaty was ratified without amendment. It now goes to Colombia as negotiated, without any change whatever. There is no doubt in the minds of senators and members of the administration that Colombia will give the treaty force.

Under the contract drawn between Attorney General Knox and the Panama Canal Company, the latter will receive $40,000,000 in a lump sum upon the exchange of ratifications.

The next step will probably be the decision of the president as to the personnel of the canal commission, and it is here regarded as almost certain that Rear Admiral Walker will be president of the commission and that Isham Randolph, the engineer of the Chicago drainage canal, will be one of the members of the commission.

Adjournment in Sight.
Most of the senators in the city left the capitol at 7 o'clock last night in the firm conviction that it would be possible to conclude the called session to-day, and that when the senate should next adjourn the adjournment would be sine die.

This conclusion involved a general understanding that the Cuban reciprocity treaty could be much more speedily disposed of than has been considered possible heretofore. There were some senators who expressed the opinion that more than one day's time would be found necessary for the presentation of arguments for and against the agreement, but a canvass of the senate soon developed the fact that only the two Louisiana senators desired to be heard on the treaty at length at this time, and they would not now say so much as they would have said if the committee on foreign relations had not agreed to recommend that the treaty be submitted to congress for its approval.

HOLDS IMMIGRANTS.

Italian Government Refuses to Allow Naturalized Citizens to Return.

Washington, March 18.—The Italian government has turned the tables on the Treasury Department here, somewhat to the annoyance of a number of American citizens. For some time the health authorities have been excluding all immigrants who show the least sign of eye trouble that might be contagious. They held "trachoma," which is a species of granulated eyelids very common in southern countries, to be contagious and excluded many immigrants, especially Italians. Notice now has been received that the Italian government has prevented a number of naturalized American citizens who have been visiting in Italy from taking ship to return to America. Its medical officers having a few cases of "trachoma" among these tourists. The matter has been reported to Washington, and a lively correspondence is in progress between the two governments.

MAY BUILD DREDGES.

Decision Holds Government Has Right to Do Its Own Work.

Washington, March 18.—Assistant Secretary of War Sanger has decided the controversy touching the right of the government to build and operate its own steam dredges. The strongest issue was made in the case of the Lake Erie dredge, for the building of which $175,000 was appropriated in the last river and harbor bill. Private dredging interests along the lakes made a vigorous fight against the construction of the boat. Gen. Sanger holds that the dredge would do work much cheaper and quicker than private dredges and ordered the boat to be built. Similarly he has ordered dredges to be built for the eastern shore of Lake Michigan and for the Fox river.

PENSION RULING.

Service in Confederate Army Is No Bar to Uncle Sam's Fighters.

Washington, March 18.—The interior department has decided that the bar to the allowance of pensions to soldiers who served in the Union army during the civil war and who had previously served in the Confederate army is removed by section 1 of the joint resolution of July 1, 1902, relating to the pensionable status of such soldiers and it is held to be unnecessary for such claimants to file a new application for pension subsequent to

July 1, 1902. The application of these veterans filed previously to that date, it is held, gives them a legal status as pension claimants. The department holds that claimants who had been pensioned and afterward dropped from the roll because of such service are entitled to restoration, and that those who had claims pending which were rejected under a departmental decision in 1894 are entitled to have their claims adjudicated on their merits notwithstanding previous Confederate service.

TO BUILD FORTIFICATIONS.

Investigation Is Being Made of the Cuban Naval Stations.

Washington, March 18.—Brigadier General Gillespie, chief of engineers, U. S. A., who is engaged in a tour of inspection of the coast defenses on the Gulf and in the south Atlantic states, will probably visit the new United States naval station sites at Bahia Honda and Guantanamo, for the purpose of determining what fortifications it is desirable to establish there.

Guantanamo, the Navy Department desires, should be heavily fortified, as it is one of the largest stations maintained by the United States and its possession is highly important in any campaign in the Caribbean. Inasmuch as it is such a vital point of the foreign policy, it is deemed best that the erection of the defenses of the Guantanamo station be made coincident with the building of the naval establishment.

Ensign Is Acquitted.

Washington, March 18.—The court which tried Ensign H. K. Wortman at Pensacola, Fla., to determine the extent, if any, of his responsibility for the explosion in the six-inch gun turret of the battleship Massachusetts, off Culebra, by which nine men lost their lives, rendered a verdict of not guilty. The record will be reviewed by the judge advocate and then will be passed on by the secretary of the navy.

New Census Director.

Washington, March 18.—The president has tendered the position of director of the census to S. N. D. North, formerly chief statistician of manufacturers of the census bureau, to succeed Director Merriam, resigned. Mr. North has accepted and will enter upon his duties some time in May. Mr. North is a native of New York, but a resident of Massachusetts.

Negro Gets Commission.

Washington, March 18.—Lieut. David J. Gilmer, a colored soldier of this city, has been commissioned by the president a second lieutenant in the Philippine Scouts. The president recently promoted Senator Pritchard of North Carolina that Lieut. Gilmer should have the first vacancy in the Philippine Scouts.

Waller Is Promoted.

Washington, March 18.—Maj. L. W. T. Waller, United States marine corps, who was with the first relief party to enter Peking and afterward made the march across the Samar in the Philippines which resulted in a court-martial, has been promoted to the rank of lieutenant colonel.

Coal Strike Decision.

Washington, March 18.—Commissioner Carroll D. Wright, recorder of the coal strike commission, said the work of the commission was nearly concluded. The finishing touches are being put on the report and it will be placed in the hands of the printer in a few days.

SHERIFF'S WIFE STOPS BIG JAIL DELIVERY

Prisoners Are Driven Back to Their Cells by the Plucky Woman After Jailor Had Been Killed.

Olympia, Wash., March 18.—Mrs. Jesse T. Mills, wife of the sheriff of Thurston county, has prevented jail deliveries, twice since her marriage a year ago. Last week the prisoners made an attack on the jailer in an attempt to escape. The sheriff was absent and when a "trustee" ran to his home close by to give the warning Mrs. Mills quickly armed herself and ran to the jail, reaching there just in time to drive back a dozen prisoners who were rushing from the door. The jailer had been killed and the murderer had escaped, but Mrs. Mills at the point of her gun drove the remainder of the prisoners back to their cells. Christ Benson, the jailer's murderer, has since been captured and as a result of his confession regarding a plot to kill the jailer and escape a number of the prisoners may be severely punished.

SAYS PENNELL WAS MURDERED

GIVES MOTIVE FOR THE CRIME

Declares He Had Threatened to Commit Suicide if the Divorce Proceedings Against Mrs. Burdick Were Not Discontinued.

Buffalo, N. Y., March 18.—The death of Edwin L. Burdick was declared by Charles S. Parke, former business partner and close friend of Burdick to have been the work of Arthur R. Pennell or a hired assassin. Fear of disclosure growing out of the divorce proceedings instituted by Burdick against his wife, in the opinion of Mr. Parke, was the motive for the crime.

The name of Pennell, who had been designated as correspondent in the Burdick divorce suit, and who was killed two weeks after Burdick's murder by his automobile plunging into Gebre's stone quarry, was frequently mentioned at the inquest into Burdick's death before Judge Murphy.

Mr. Parke in his testimony told of conversations he had with Burdick relative to trouble with Pennell. On one occasion Burdick told Parke that Pennell had threatened suicide if the suit was not stopped. Pennell threatened to kill both himself and Mrs. Burdick.

Furnace Man to Testify.

It is understood that the district attorney will call three witnesses, viz. Mrs. Burdick, Miss Lizzie Romance, the domestic in the Pennell home, and a furnace man formerly employed by Pennell.

It is said that on the morning following the Burdick murder the furnace man called as usual at Pennell home to perform his duties. He was met at the door by Mr. Pennell, who informed him that his services would not be required that morning as he (Pennell) had attended to the furnace. It was the first time in two years, the furnace man is reported to have said, that Pennell had attended to the furnace, and in view of developments he thought the fact of sufficient importance to communicate it to the authorities.

Mrs. Paine Is Questioned.

Mrs. Gertrude B. Paine, the wife of Dr. Seth T. Payne, an intimate friend of the Pennells and the Burdicks, was closely questioned regarding the relations between the two families, and especially of the feeling displayed by the men toward each other. Mrs. Paine's house was searched by the police on the Sunday following the murder.

The district attorney devoted most of the time to questions relating to her relations with Burdick and her knowledge of the feeling between Pennell and Burdick. Mrs. Paine denied having been at Burdick's house at any time when not accompanied by Dr. Paine. Her relations with Burdick were purely social.

Servant Leaves City.

Dr. Payne was examined. He was on the stand for only a few minutes. He was in Batavia on the night of the murder.

A. Carlson, the Swedish boarder at Mrs. Paine's house, was very nervous while on the witness stand. He thought Mrs. Paine was in the house on the night of the murder, but could not say positively. Miss Mary Cunningham, the other occupant of the Paine house on the night of the murder, has left the city, according to testimony given by Mrs. Paine. Her whereabouts is not known.

Waukegan, Ill., March 18.—Surveyors are now at work at Zion City marking out the site for Dowie's big tabernacle, where he will shortly deliver his discourses, abandoning the Chicago Auditorium. It is expected that the work of excavating will begin this week, and that the building, which is to seat 16,000 persons, will be completed in September. It is to be chiefly of steel and stone, and will cost about $5,000. It will have five galleries, so arranged that every spectator can hear the speaker.

MISS FAY LEE,

President of the Shakespearean Club, Kansas City.

"Your booklet came to my home like a message of health when I had suffered with headache, backache and bearing-down pains. I was weak, nervous and hysterical, and had not consulted any doctor, thinking it would pass away in time, but instead I found that the pains increased and were more frequent. I decided to try Wine of Cardui and in a short time was much improved. It seemed to act like a charm. I kept up the treatment and the result was most satisfactory. Words fail to express my gratitude for the suffering that is now saved me. I am in fine health, physically and mentally. I can only say 'thank you,' but there is much more in my heart for you."

BEARING-DOWN pains are the worst that women know. If you are suffering from this trouble you need not be uncertain about it. The pains in the abdomen and back that feel as if heavy weights were pulling down on the nerves of the stomach are "bearing-down pains". They may not be particularly severe at present but they are growing worse. That headache which nearly drives you distracted now is caused by the terrible nervous tension. The nerves soon begin to give way under the strain. You perhaps jump at any unusual disturbance, or laugh or weep, hysterically, at no apparent cause. That is what Miss Fay Lee, 603 1/2 North Seventh Street, Kansas City, Kansas, was coming to when she rescued herself by taking Wine of Cardui. The Wine made her a strong, healthy woman again, as it has made a million other women strong and healthy. By inducing regular menstruation the entire system is relieved of the terrible wasting drains. The ligaments which hold the womb in place are strengthened by a healthy flow and that organ is returned to its normal position. Returning health is the result. This is what Wine of Cardui has done for thousands of the best women in America.

If you need advice write The Ladies' Advisory Department, The Chattanooga Medicine Company, Chattanooga, Tenn., describing all your symptoms freely, and a letter of advice will be sent you. Secure a $1.00 bottle of Wine of Cardui from your druggist to-day.
